Training material title
Data Sources for Measuring Forced Displacement: with a focus on administrative sources
Brief description and comments

Slides from a presentation given by Khassoum Diallo of the United Nations Office for the High Commissioner for Refugees, at a regional workshop on "strengthening national capacities to improve migration data", Bishkek – 15-17 February 2010. Other papers from the workshop (in both English and Russian) can be found on the meeting website at <http://www.unece.org/stats/documents/2010.02.migration.html>.

The presentation is structured as follows:

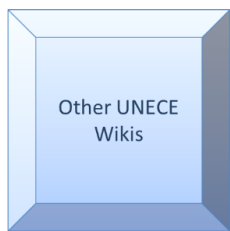

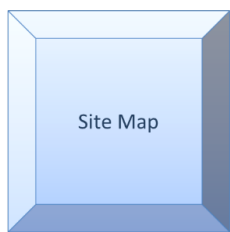

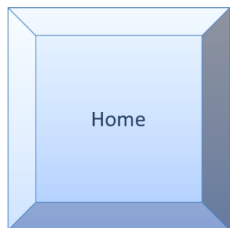

- Context: migration asylum nexus
- Refugees: a component of international migration
- UNHCR mandate on reporting refugees, asylum-seekers and stateless persons
- Scope of forced displacement
- Data sources for measuring forced displacement
- Focus on administrative sources
- Challenges and opportunities.
