

Data collection and statistics on domestic violence

1) Basic Information

Training material title
Data collection and statistics on domestic violence- challenges and lessons learned
Brief description and comments

Slides from a presentation given at an International Conference entitled 'Joint Approach to Family Violence: Legislation, Indicators, Enforcement', May 20-21 2009, Bishkek, Kyrgyzstan.

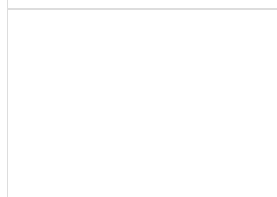

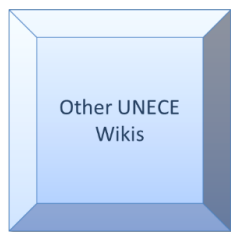

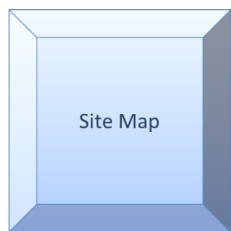

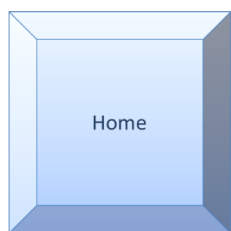

Topics covered are: What are indicators?; Why collect data and have statistics and indicators on domestic violence/VAW?; Data collection & Sources of data; Understanding what the data tell us; Recommendations and lessons learned.

Main category

Demographic and Social Statistics

2) Contact details and how to find the material

Author Organization(s)	Contact email address for this material (if applicable)	Date created
Henriette Jansen	henriette.jansen at gmail.com	May 2009
Location (links and/or attachments)
Attached files	File size
Data collection and statistics on domestic violence.ppt	1.65 MB

UNECE
Statistical
Division

Add an entry
(staff only)